Tuesday, November 19. 1706.

From the Amst. Cour. and Gaz. dated Nov. 23.

Vienna, Nov. 10.

Vesterday the annual Assembly of the Estates of the lower Austria was open'd here: His Imperial Majesty made a short Speech to them; after which his Demand of an Aid of a Million and a half of Gulders was laid before them, tho' they are 500000 Gulders in Arrears of the Subsidy they gave last Year. 'Tis said the Emperour has order'd his hereditary Provinces to furnish by the Month of February 20000 Men to recruit his Foot, and 8000 Horses for his Cavalry. The Imperial Court expect to raise a considerable Sum by Contributions in the Milaneze, and of the Imperial Fiefs in several Parts of Italy. Count Staremberg having left his Troops in Security on the Frontier of Hungary, about Presbourg, and in the Island of Schut, came hither the 8th Instant, and has since had several Conferences with the Ministers of this Court. 'Tis rumour'd he has acquainted the Emperour that General Rabutin had sent him Word, that he found it necessary to repass the Tibiscus and march back to Transilvania there to take Winter Quarters; so that his intended Junction with General Staremberg is at an End: Whereupon 'tis said some more Places in the hither Part of Hungary will be furnish'd with Provisions, and the Frontiers of Austria be well secur'd from any Invasion this Winter.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 23.

Leipzick, Nov. 17. The 13th the Ministers of England and Holland arriv'd here from Danzick, and notified their Arrival to his Swedish Majesty: Yesterday they had an Audience of him. The Detachment of Swedes which march'd towards Poland, halted in the Province of Lusatia and have taken Quarters there. The 15th in the Afternoon Peace was proclaim'd here between the King of Sweden and King Augustus, and Notification of it was given to the forreign Ministers that are here, who dispatch'd Couriers with the News of it to their respective Principals. The Treaty was ratified at Alt-Ranstad the 14th Instant, but is not yet made publick here. Pursuant to this Treaty, the Swedish Garrison have already withdraw'n out of our Castle, and have deliver'd up to our Officers the Arms and Magazines they found in it. Yesterday the Prince of Saxon Weyssels arriv'd here, and Apartments are fitting up for King Augustus who is shortly expected here.

Hamburg, Nov. 19. We have receiv'd Advice from several Places, that a Peace is concluded in Poland. Some Letters say King Augustus will come into Saxony, to have an Interview with the King of Sweden. General Mardefeld, being at Liberty on his Parole, arriv'd at the King of Sweden's Quarters the 13th Instant. We have no Account of the Progress of the Siege of Wybourg, which the Czar began very lately. 'Tis advis'd from Riga, that 18000 Muscovites were drawn together in Lithuania, and that the Swedish General Lewenhaupt was march'd against them.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Nov. 23.

From the Imperial Camp at Hagenbach, Nov. 19. The Marshal de Villars who was at Strasbourg, having notice we had sent away our heavy Baggage, and believing our Army was also about to march to repass the Rhine, advanc'd this Morning in Sight of our Camp with all his Horse, Grenadiers, 5 Men of each Foot Company of his Army, with design to suppos'd to attack our Rear-Guard: But finding us in a Posture to give him a good Reception, he retir'd after some skirmishing between Parties on both sides. There are some Difficulties about our Winter Quarters still to be remov'd, and the separation of the Army is retarded on that Account. General Thungen is at Raftad.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Nov. 23.

Paris, Nov. 19. Express's from Switzerland arriv'e frequently at Court, but what they bring is not divulg'd. The Duke of Vendome is at present taken up with viewing the Condition of some Places on our Coast, and is expected at Court before the End of this Month. The raising of Soldiers in this City occasions many Disorders: On Tuesday last an Officer who would have forc'd some Persons into the Service, before the Louvre, was shot dead; the Person that did it is not yet apprehended. The Watch that patroll a Nights about the Streets are doubled, and a strict Eye is kept on all Strangers that are lodg'd in publick Houses. The King has made a promotion of Sea-Officers. Most of the general Officers are arriv'd here from the Armies in Dauphine and Flanders; and the Duke of Charost and Count Albergotti have already appear'd at Court.

Rochester, Nov. 17. The Duke of Marlborough landed at 4 this Morning at Margate, din'd at Sittingborn, and arriv'd here about 5 this Evening. His Grace was pleas'd to allow our Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council-men, and the Town-Clerk (the Recorder being Absent) to attend him at his Lodgings, to congratulate his Arrival and Successes: They had all the Formalities of their Corporation. After taking Leave of his Grace, they caus'd a Bonfire to be made before his Lodgings, and went themselves to the Town-hall, where they drank the Queen's, the Prince's, and his Grace's Healths, &c. Illuminations and ringing of Bells, concluded the Evening.

London, November 19.

Yesterday in the Evening the Duke of Marlborough pass'd through this City to St. James's.

EDINBURGH.

Minutes of Parliament, Tuesday Nov. 12. Some Addresses from Burghs and Parishes against allowing an Union with England in the Terms of the the Articles were Read. Thereafter the Parliament proceeded to the furder consideration of the Act for security of the Kirk, &c. within this Kingdom, and the 4th Clause thereof again read, whereupon it was moved that a Clause should be added in this Terms, ' And that they shall be capable of any Office Civil or Military, and to receive any Grant or Gift, and to have Command or Place of Trust from and under the Sovereign within any part of Great Britain : And after debate thereon it was put to the Vote add or not, and it carried not ; and the Clause as it stood agreed to. And then the 3d Clause of the Act was read, and being amended was agreed to. And the next Clause being also again read and amended, was likeways agreed to. Whereupon the whole Act was again read, as also the Representation of the Commission of the General Assembly, and a Vote staled approve of the Act or not ; but before Voting the Lord Belhaven gave in a Protestation in this Terms, ' That he did Protest in his own Name, and in Name of all them that should adhere to him, That this Act is no valid Security to the Church in case of an incorporating Union ; and that the Church can have no real and solid Security by any manner of Union, by which the Claim of Right is unhinged, our Parliament incorporated, and our distinct Sovereignty and Independency intirely abolished : Which being read he took Instruments thereon. ' And after some reasoning it was agreed, that all the Members should be marked as they should approve the Act or not, and also as they shall adhere to the Protest ; and that a List of the Members as they voted Pro or Con should be printed. Then the Vote was put approve or not, and it carried approve. Then the Parliament adjourned till Thursday at 1 o'Clock.
